Norma offers ultimate opulence whilst taking inspiration from the St. Regis's heritage as paved by its founder: John Jacob Astor IV. In 1884 Mr. Astor purchased the largest private yacht in the world named after the princess Nourmahal, the heroine of Thomas Moore's poem "Light of the Harem". In 1910, he replaced it with the yacht Norma as a nickname of Nourmahal, which is known to be the original Norma yacht.
